In Beauty it is Done

Opening Words

We have come together in the presence of God to witness the joining of _____ and _____ in Holy Matrimony. This is a special celebration that _____ and _____ will long remember, and because of this, they are thankful you are here to share their joy.

Reading-- Percy B. Shelley

"The Fountains mingle with the River
And the Rivers with the Ocean,
The winds of Heaven mix for ever
With a sweet emotion:
Nothing in the world is single;
All things by a law divine
In one spirit meet and mingle.
Why not I with thine?
See the mountains kiss high Heaven
And the waves clasp one another;
No sister-flower would be forgiven
If it disdained its brother,
And the sunlight clasps the earth
And the moonbeams kiss the sea:
What is all this sweet work worth
If thou kiss not me?"

Vows

Groom/Brides names

I, _____, take you, _____ as my friend and love, beside me and apart from me, in laughter and in tears, in conflict and in tranquility, asking that you be no other than yourself, loving what I know of you, trusting what I do not know yet, in all the ways life may find us.

Exchange of Rings:

_____, take this ring as a symbol of my love and fidelity.

Inasmuch as you, _____ and _____, have come before your family and friends and declared your love and devotion to each other, I now greet you with them as husband and wife.

Let all things that go before you be beautiful;

Let all things that go behind you be beautiful;

In beauty it is done.
