Give Yourself the Gift of Wedding Day Peace of Mind.

Simple Wedding Ceremony

Officiant:

We are gathered here, in the presence of these witnesses, to join together this man and this woman in matrimony. It is not to be entered into unadvisedly but discreetly, sincerely and in dedication of life.

Love calls you into union with one another. I ask you now in the presence of this congregation to declare your intent.

To Bride/Groom

Will you have this man/woman to be your husband/wife,
to live together in a holy marriage?

Will you love him/her, comfort him/her, honor and keep him/her in sickness and in health, and forsaking all others, be faithful to him/her as long as you both shall live?

Bride/Groom response: I will

Ring exchange

The ring is a circle, symbolic of eternity, unity, reincarnation and the universe. In earlier times the ring was associated with the Sun and Moon. It was an object of protection, a magical guard that warded off negativity through its continuity....

Today, the wedding ring is an outward and visible sign—signifying to all the uniting of a man and a woman in matrimony

Groom/Bride

(Name), with free and unconstrained soul,/

I give you all I am and all I am to become./

Take this ring, / and with it my promise of faith, patience, and love,/ for the rest of my life

Forasmuch as (Grooms name) and (Brides name) have consented together in wedlock and have witnessed the same each to the other and before these witnesses and have pledged their faith each to the other and have declared the same by giving and receiving a ring, by virtue of the authority vested in me as a cleric of the _____, and the state of _____ I pronounce (Grooms Name & Brides Name) are husband and wife together, (Grooms name) you may kiss your bride.
